ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT STAFF

JOHN J. CONBOY
Athletic Director

John J. (Jack) Conboy was named La Salle athletic director on January 3, 1969, succeeding James J. Henry, who retired January 1 after 35 years as Explorer A.D.

Conboy, 47, graduated from La Salle in 1950. He recently retired from the U.S. Army with the rank of lieutenant colonel after 20 years service. A veteran of three wars (WW II, Korea and Vietnam), Conboy served on the ROTC staff at La Salle from 1960-64.

Conboy was a member of St. Joseph's Prep's last city championship football team in 1939. After three years of World War II service in Europe, Conboy enrolled at Georgetown where he played football for two years before transferring to La Salle.

He was assistant football coach at St. Joseph's Prep from 1948 to 1950. He also coached Army football and basketball teams in Europe and Hawaii and organized a triathlon team at La Salle which produced three former members of the U.S. Army modern pentathlon team—Don Walheim, Bill Conroy and Gary McNulty.

Conboy, who holds an M.B.A. degree in Industrial Management from Temple University, resides in Drexel Hill, Pa. with his wife, Anne, and four children.

JOSEPH F. O'DONNELL
Assistant Athletic Director

Joseph F. O'Donnell was appointed assistant A.D. and coordinator of Hayman Hall, the college's new $4.0 million physical recreation center last March.

A 1965 graduate of La Salle with a B.A. in economics, O'Donnell had taught social studies at Father Judge, his high school alma mater, from 1965-70. During the latter period, O'Donnell coached the school's soccer squad and was credited with developing 28 All-Catholic players, four of whom achieved All-Scholastic honors, and one All-American status.

In 1970-71 O'Donnell moved to a full-time position with the City of Philadelphia as recreation leader at the Jardel Center. He was a member of the Department of Recreation Soccer Committee, and also assisted Bill Wilkinson with the 1970 Explorer soccer team which posted the first winning season in the college's history.

O'Donnell, 28, and his wife, Marie, reside in northeast Philadelphia.

MEET THE EXPLORER COACHING STAFF

PAUL W. WESTHEAD
Head Basketball Coach

Paul W. Westhead, now in his third year as La Salle varsity basketball mentor, has rapidly established himself as one of the better young strategists in the game.

A great defensive player at St. Joseph's College, Westhead was often successfully matched against an opponent's top scorer by his coach, Dr. Jack Ramsay. He later returned to his alma mater in 1968 as assistant athletic director, and coached the St. Joe's frosh five to a 21-2 record, best in the school's history.

Previously, Westhead had coached at Cheltenham High, a suburban Philadelphia school (1964-68), gradually building a winning tradition. In 1968, he took his squad to the P.I.A.A. playoffs for the first time in the school's history and advanced all the way to the state finals.

In his first year at the La Salle helm, Westhead directed the Explorers to twenty victories in twenty-seven contests. That 1970-71 five won fifteen of their first sixteen games, upset two of the NCAA semifinalists, Western Kentucky and Villanova, and participated in the National Invitational Tourney.

Westhead received his bachelor's degree from St. Joseph's in 1961, and his master's degree from Villanova in 1963. He has done work on his Ph.D. at Temple University, and has served on the English faculties of Cheltenham High, St. Joseph's College and La Salle College.

Westhead, 33; his wife, Catherine, and three children live in suburban Drexel Hill, Pa.

JOSEPH C. O'CONNOR
Assistant Coach

Joseph C. O'Connor has coached the Explorer frosh contingents over the past two seasons to a combined 34-11 mark. O'Connor's '71-72 yearlings won twenty of twenty-three games and finished first in Big Five competition.

The 30-year-old mentor, who puts great stress on fundamentals, is no stranger to this kind of success. As coach of South Jersey's Bishop Eustace Prep from 1966-70, O'Connor's amazing coaching log read 78-17, including the New Jersey State Championship in 1969.

O'Connor, a resident of Upper Darby, Pa., is a 1963 graduate of St. Joseph's College with a bachelor's degree in history.

THE ATHLETE

The young man who accepts the exciting challenge of representing La Salle College on basketball courts throughout the nation will be one who recognizes that he is supplementing his classroom participation with athletic participation.

He will learn to discipline himself toward achieving a goal, to work in close association with other men, and to acquire judgment and responsibility. As such a student athlete, he will be, above all, a gentleman.

PAUL GALLAGHER
Assistant Coach

Paul Gallagher, a former Explorer varsity basketballer and later head coach at Drexel Hill, Pa.'s Monsignor Bonner High, returns for his third campaign as an assistant to coach Paul Westhead.

The 1964 graduate of La Salle served as an assistant coach at Bonner before becoming head coach at St. James High in Chester, Pa. in 1966-67. Gallagher returned to Bonner the following year, and went on to compile a brilliant 57-19 career coaching mark. His 1969-70 quintet finished with a fine 24-6 log, won Philadelphia's Catholic League Southern Division title and capped the season with the Alhambra Catholic Invitational trophy at Cumberland, Md.

Gallagher, 28, who captained Bonner's 1960 City Championship five, resides with his wife, Sue, and three children in Havertown, Pa.

DAVID A. (LEFTY) ERVIN
Assistant Coach

David "Lefty" Ervin is in his fifth season as an assistant basketball coach, and also distinguishes himself as an assistant baseball boss at La Salle.

While a student at the college, Lefty was a two-sport standout and co-captain of the Explorer baseball and basketball teams in his senior year. In 1968 he was honored with the Joseph Schmitz Jr. Award as the senior who best exemplified the high traditions of La Salle College in loyalty, sportsmanship and courage.

A starter on the basketball varsity as a sophomore, Ervin spent most of the next two years as the Explorers' sixth man and gained a reputation as one of the outstanding substitutes in the nation. He scored a total of 756 points for his career.

Lefty played baseball and basketball at Abington High before graduating in 1963. In addition to his duties at La Salle, he serves on the faculty of Archbishop Ryan High.

Ervin, 26; his wife, Karen, and newborn son, Joshua, reside in Roslyn, Pa.

EXPLORER 1972-73 PROSPECTS— THE COACH'S VIEW

". . . we anticipate considerable improvement . . ."

Paul Westhead

With all the key performers from last year's varsity returning along with some excellent sophomore talent from a 20-3 freshman quintet, we anticipate considerable improvement for 1972-73.

In 6-5 senior Jim Crawford, our MVP and captain as well as an MAC All-Star a year ago, we have a truly great player. Jim's team-topping statistics in scoring (15.7 ppg.) and rebounding (10.9 rpg.) speak for themselves. The "Sky Man," who hit double figures in the scoring column in 20 of 25 contests last season, and registered 20 points on eight different occasions, should find much of the do-it-all pressure up front relieved with the addition of several promising newcomers.

We'll also be relying on Jim and his fellow senior co-captain 6-3 Bill Fox for the leadership characteristics essential to the successful team.

In the frontcourt, returning junior forwards 6-6 Joe DiCocco (13.1 ppg.-9.6 rpg.) and 6-4 Frank Doyle (13.1 ppg.) will be battling sophomores 6-8 Kevin McBain (16.2 ppg.-12.5 rpg.-frosh) and 6-5 Billy Taylor (16.2 ppg.-frosh) for starting positions. Also in the picture is junior letterman 6-5 Joe Rapczynski.

Our backcourt will be headed by 6-3 junior Jim Haggarty (13.2 ppg.), who we hope will be fully recovered from an eye injury incurred prior to practice sessions, and two capable soph floor generals, 6-1 Bobby Jones (13.9 ppg.-frosh) and 5-11 Steve Wiley (9.9 ppg.-frosh). In addition, juniors 5-10 Frank Moffatt and 6-0 Steve Baruffi, along with Fox and 6-0 frosh Charles Wise, give us a stable of quality performers at the guard spot.

In summary, this year's La Salle varsity will feature increased depth and board strength, so that we'll be able to employ a variety of effective offensive and defensive variations. We'll still be a rather young club faced with the responsibility of developing veteran poise as quickly as possible, especially in the light of two challenging December tourneys, the Cable Car at Oakland, Cal., and the Quaker City at Philadelphia.

Meet The Explorers

The La Salle five's '71-72 MVP and an MAC All-Star, Jim Crawford (no. 23) will be a major factor in the court destiny of this year's Explorers.

13. HOFSTRA UNIVERSITY

Saturday, January 13, 1973, 7:05 P.M. (EST) at the Palestra, Philadelphia, Pa.

SERIES RECORD:
LA SALLE 3, HOFSTRA 1

OUTLOOK: The loss of four starters via graduation presents a formidable rebuilding task. Upfront, 6-5 senior Brian Meehan, recovered from an injury, 6-4 junior Dale Davis (11.4 ppg), and 6-5 soph John Farmer (25.5 ppg.-frosh) will carry the attack. Backcourt candidates include 6-1 Matt LiPuma (7.8 ppg.) and 6-2 Al Wolfson (4.5 ppg.), both seniors, and 6-3 newcomer Dan Gastman (17.4 ppg.-frosh). Pressing defense and fast-moving offense will have to compensate for lack of height.

SERIES RECORD:
LA SALLE 21, LAFAYETTE 6

OUTLOOK: Leopards will miss their graduated all-time scoring leader, Tracy Tripucka, and two other starters from last year's fine NIT club. 6-5 senior forward Walt Kocubinski (18.5 ppg.-10.0 rpg.) and 6-10 junior center Earl Brown are the key holdovers and should get help upfront from 6-3 junior forward Jim Portray (7.5 ppg.) and 6-6 soph Henry Horne (13.9 ppg.-frosh). The backcourt could present problems with sophomores 6-2 Frank Dileo (21.7 ppg.-frosh) and 6-1 Art Fischetti (15.3 ppg.-frosh) being the top candidates. An MAC-West contender.

SERIES RECORD:
LA SALLE 11, PENNSYLVANIA 14

OUTLOOK: Quaker strength lies in a frontcourt of returning regulars 6-8 All-Ivy senior Phil Hankinson (16.7 ppg.-8.3 rpg.), 6-6 senior Craig Littlepage (5.7 ppg.) and 6-8 junior John Jablonski (4.3 ppg.). Additionally, sophomores 6-8 Ron Haigler (21.4 ppg.-14.8 rpg.-frosh), 6-7 Bob Bigelow (14.5 ppg.-frosh) and 6-6 Larry Lewis (11.9 ppg.-frosh) add even more firepower. Problems rotate around the location of a pair of guards from among 6-1 senior Steve Batory, and juniors 6-0 Whitey Varga and 6-2 Bill Finger, all inexperienced upperclassmen. SERIES RECORD:
LA SALLE 27, TEMPLE 33

OUTLOOK: Owls will miss their graduated leading scorer and rebounder Ollie Johnson, but a solid group of '71-72 regulars do return in 6-4 senior forward Mike Jones (13.0 ppg.), 6-9 junior center Joe Newman (8.0 ppg.-6.6 rpg.), and junior guards 6-1 John Kneib (10.8 ppg.) and 5-11 Rick Trudeau (4.3 ppg.). Two super sophs, 6-1 Kevin Washington (21.1 ppg.-frosh) and 6-4 Joe Anderson (19.8 ppg.-18.5 rpg.-frosh), should make things even more pleasant. Coach Harry Litwack will add another winning season to a string of thirteen consecutive +.500 campaigns.

SERIES RECORD:
LA SALLE 7, AMERICAN 1

OUTLOOK: Phase two of the "American Revolution" centers around 6-8 senior, All-American candidate Kermit Washington (21.0 ppg.-19.8 rpg.), the national rebounding leader of '71-72. 6-5 junior Pete DeHaven (12.2 ppg.) and 6-6 soph Wilbur Thomas (28.6 ppg.-frosh) appear to have the other frontcourt spots locked up with 6-7 soph Bill Mann (19.4 ppg.-13.0 rpg.-frosh) as a key reserve. One guard position will be held by 6-1 junior Steve Garrett (10.2 ppg.) while the other is up for grabs. A serious MAC East contender.

SERIES RECORD:
LA SALLE 10, VILLANOVA 13

OUTLOOK: Replacing graduates 6-6 Hank Siemiontkowski and 6-5 Chris Ford from last year's NCAA club is a difficult task. On the bright side, however, the 'Cats feature a capable senior backcourt of 6-3 All-American hopeful Tom Inglesby (18.8 ppg.) and 6-2 Ed Hastings (8.6 ppg.) along with two hotshot soph guards 6-3 Billy Harris (21.1 ppg.-frosh) and 6-1 Ed Manning (17.5 ppg.-frosh). What 'Nova must do is find two frontcourtmen from a host of inexperienced personnel to team with 6-7 junior forward Larry Moody (11.0 ppg.-8.2 rpg.). Suffice to say that coach Jack Kraft's teams have made 11 post-season tourneys in 11 years.

1971-72 Villanova 86-73

The essence of Big Five competition shows on the faces of Explorer Frank Doyle (no. 25) and Villanovan Chris Ford (no. 42).

Past Records

6-7 All-American Ken Durrett (no. 33) lefthands two of his 45 points which sparked La Salle's 91-76 rout of Western Kentucky and set new Palestra and Explorers' standards during the 1970-71 campaign. Durrett, MAC and Big Five MVP, finished his career with 1679 points, second highest total in La Salle history. Ken's career per-game average of 23.6 is the school's best ever.

THE EXPLORERS' 1971-72 SEASON IN REVIEW

The record will show that Paul Westhead's 1971-72 La Salle College basketball varsity won only six of 25 contests, and dropped all four games with Big Five opponents. Unfortunately, the won-lost mark hardly reveals enough about last year's Explorers.

Inexperienced and undersized, the seniorless La Salle court group played competitive basketball against almost all opponents, but simply could not prevail at the game's end. The Explorers held second half leads against Lehigh, Hofstra, Tulsa, Boston College, St. Joseph's, Loyola, Drexel, Holy Cross, Syracuse, and Villanova, and forced post-intermission ties with Lafayette and Nebraska, but lost all twelve decisions, generally being worn down by the opposition.

In Pittsburgh, where much more talented La Salle teams have been routed by Duquesne, the Explorers extended a fine Duke five before bowing in the ECAC TV game of the week. At Nebraska's Cornhusker Classic, La Salle upset Baylor, and battled eventual champion Nebraska on even terms for most of the title contest.

In Big Five clashes, the Explorers unveiled the hustle and desire which are traditional at the Olney school. St. Joseph's and Villanova were forced to come from behind against the scrappy La Salle five, and Pennsylvania and Temple found themselves in games against the Explorers which were not decided until the final moments.

Above all stood 6-4 junior captain Jim Crawford, who established himself as one of the most consistent court performers in La Salle history. The 20-year-old business major from Haddonfield, New Jersey, topped the Explorers in scoring (394 points, 15.7 ppg.), rebounding (10.9 rpg.) and assists (68), but even more indicative, Crawford hit the double figure scoring column in 20 of 25 contests, tallying over 20 points on eight occasions. The frail 175-pound forward also lived up to his reputation as "Skyman," pulling double-figure boards 15 times.

Crawford bombed a career high 26 points against Massachusetts, Lafayette and Syracuse, and grabbed a career high 19 rebounds against Lafayette. He was an All-Tourney selection in both the Quaker City at Philadelphia and the 'Husker at Lincoln, Nebraska. La Salle's MVP also attained post-season recognition as a first-team Middle Atlantic Conference All-Star.

A quartet of sophomores provided the Explorers with plenty of additional thrust. 6-3 guard Jim Haggarty, who tallied 51 points (career high: 31 points vs. Baylor) in the 'Husker Classic to earn MVP honors, scored 13.2 ppg. and and finished second to Crawford in assists with 50. "Haggs," who was singled out as La Salle's "most dedicated" player, also shot a creditable 80.6% from the charity stripe (100-124).

6-6 center Joe DiCocco, with a 21-point, 15-rebound performance against Villanova, and a career-best 24 tallies vs. Western Kentucky, averaged 13.1 ppg. and 9.6 rpg. DiCocco also led his club in the "unsung category" of steals with 44.

Frank Doyle, 6-4 forward, proved to be the shooter of the La Salle five, hitting 49.6% (128-258) from the field, and 80.7% (71-88) from the free-throw marker, and tabbing 13.1 ppg. Doyle's career high 21 points came against Fairfield.

Unheralded soph guard Frank Moffatt, at 5-10 and 140 pounds, was the Explorers' biggest surprise of the year, running the La Salle attack with precision and cleverness while contributing 5.8 ppg., 50 assists, and 43 steals (second highest). Moffatt was his team's leading foul shooter with 82.4% (42-51), and hit a career high 17 points vs. Fairfield.

Solid back-up performances came from 6-0 soph Steve Baruffi (5.1 ppg.) who played at just about every position for coach Westhead, 6-0 junior guard Tom Fuhs (2.9 ppg.), and 6-2 junior utility man Bill Fox (1.9 ppg.).

6-7 junior center John Maull (4.1 ppg.), who played in only seven games due to an ankle injury, 6-5 Joe Rapczynski (1.9 ppg.), 6-1 junior Ken Kennedy (1.0 ppg.), and 6-3 junior Ed Forrest (1.0 ppg.) also contributed their talents and strength in substitute roles.

Nineteenth century reformer Wendell Phillips once said: "What is defeat? Nothing but education, nothing but the first step to something better."

Westhead's young Explorers were defeated in 1971-72. The entire team will return this season to put that education to good use.

The Explorers' "most dedicated performer of 1971-72," Jim Haggarty (no. 21), should add talent and experience to this year's La Salle backcourt.

THE LA SALLE STORY

Brother Daniel Burke,
F.S.C., Ph.D.
President, La Salle College

La Salle College, now in its 110th year of service to higher education and the Philadelphia Community, was founded March 20, 1863 by the Brothers of the Christian Schools and derives its name from the founder of the Christian Brothers, St. John Baptist de La Salle.

In 1929, having outgrown three previous Philadelphia locations, the campus was moved to its present site at 20th and Olney Avenue in the East Germantown section of the city.

Since 1945, La Salle has experienced dramatic growth. Before the closing days of the war, the college had an enrollment of less than 500 attending classes in plant facilities valued at only $1.5 million. Today, 6600 day and evening division students attend classes on La Salle's 40-acre campus, appraised at $30 million.

Olney Hall, a $4.4 million, 100,000-square-foot complex opened in September, 1971, contains 39 classrooms, 15 student seminar and study rooms, and 107 faculty offices as well as such special-purpose areas as a planetarium, an amphitheatre, language laboratories and audio-visual rooms. It houses the liberal arts area departments of English, Education, History, Languages, Political Science and Sociology.

Hayman Hall, the college's new $4 million physical recreation center which opened this past September, contains the Joseph Kirk Memorial Natatorium with separate swimming and diving facilities, an underwater observation deck, and seats for 1700 spectators. Three regulation-size basketball courts, a one-twelfth mile indoor suspended track, and areas for fencing, wrestling, squash, handball, gymnastics and general exercise are the other features of the complex.

Ten modern residence halls accommodate 800 out-of-town students. A $2 million, three-story College Union Building, completed in 1959, includes a Little Theatre as well as dining halls, assembly rooms, ballroom and other student facilities.

The $2.5 million Holroyd Science Center, opened in 1960, houses lecture rooms and laboratories for study and research in Biology, Chemistry, Geology, Physics and Psychology. The David Leo Lawrence Memorial Library, built in 1952, contains 175,000 volumes and periodical files for some 700 journals, and a new library is in the planning stages.

Additional educational areas are located on a 52-acre campus in Elkins Park and on an 80-acre site in Springfield Township. The Army ROTC program, initiated in 1950, is available to freshmen, who may apply for ROTC scholarships for advance studies. Nearly 350 students, including those enrolled in advanced courses, participate in the program.

La Salle's day and evening divisions offer degree programs in Arts and Sciences and Business Administration. The 350-member faculty is composed of Christian Brothers, priests and lay professors. The college has been co-educational in the evening division since February, 1967 and in its day school since September, 1970.
